

WESTERN RESERVE SAFETY COUNCIL

Creating a safer workplace.

What is the Western Reserve Safety Council?

The Western Reserve Safety Council (WRSC) provides a forum for the presentation of health and safety issues and exchange of ideas and best practices in the workplace with an emphasis on regulatory compliance, OSHA, EPA rules and regulations, employee health, risk management and workplace accident prevention. WRSC informs participants about new techniques, products and services that contribute to a safer workplace. The WRSC is an excellent opportunity for members to share ideas and learn from each other while saving your organization money.

BWC partnership

WRSC is sponsored by the Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation (BWC), Division of Safety and Hygiene, and the Solon Chamber of Commerce for the benefit of businesses and other organizations in the eastern suburbs of Cleveland and the surrounding areas. The WRSC is open to all area companies, local governments, school districts and police and fire districts, whether or not they are members of the Solon Chamber — all public and private organizations are welcome.
